The South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[Numb. 1921.] THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1772.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

Mr. POWELL,

NONE deserve more Respect from Mankind, than those who apply their Time and Thoughts in contriving the best Means to prevent calamitous Accidents happening to their Fellow-Creatures, and exerting their utmost Endeavours, as far as Human Prudence can avail, to obviate or put a Stop to the Devastation and Ruin that else might ensue, from such Casualties when they do happen. And surely, should we except Inundations and Earthquakes, which are permitted for Purposes known to God alone, none is more rapidly destructive than FIRE, when that Element is let loose to spread its ruinous Effects, more especially on those who live in closely-built Towns.

When the Causes of Fires happening amongst us, are properly enquired into, they are very generally found to arise from Carelessness either of House-Keepers or their Servants—And for that Reason, the diligent, and very respectable FIRE-MASTERS, have warned us to see our Chimnies properly swept, as the Town has lately been several Times endangered, from the Want of Attention to this necessary Caution.—MYSOPYROS, in your last Gazette, made some Observations on this Subject; and you will please to allow me to add a few others, which may be of Use, if a proper Regard is had to them.

Another Source of Danger from Fire, arises from Negroes being allowed to make Fires in Tubs, filled with Earth or Ashes, placed on the Floors of Kitchen-Lofts, in which Light-wood, Chips, and such very combustible Materials, are burnt.—And as these Fires are left blazing when Negroes go to sleep, the Danger is apparent, either from the Tubs taking Fire, or the burning Wood falling on the Floor:—Alarms from this Cause have been frequent here, as well as from Negroes being allowed to carry Candles or other Lights into Hay-Lofts, at all Hours of the Night, either to take out or put up Horses—Two Accidents of this Sort having lately happened here, whereby the Stables, and several other Out-Buildings, were destroyed.

Though the throwing of Squibs and other Fire-Works is absolutely forbidden by Law, yet nothing is more common in this Place, more especially during the Winter; at which season the Danger of Fires happening from other Causes is greatest. It may be remembered by many People, that the Roof of a Dwelling-House was not long ago set on Fire by a Sky-Rocket falling on it.—And notwithstanding this alarming Accident, it is much to be lamented, that on some Nights last Week, several such Rockets were fired off in our Streets.

Some of the Causes by which we incur Danger from Fire have been mentioned; as Accidents have repeatedly happened here from such, as well as from the Carelessness of Bakers, in not watching their Ovens, and seeing they are free of Cracks and Openings; Negroes being often allowed to make Fires in them at the Dead-Time of the Night, when all other People are asleep; the Brick Work of their Ovens not being sufficient to keep the Fire that is made in them within due Bounds.—And we are also liable to the same Hazard from Negro Women who make Cakes, and have Rendezvouses in their Houses at all Hours.—The Manufacturing of Candles and Soap, is likewise a dangerous Occupation in Town; it being well known, that the Management of both this Business and Baking, is generally left to Negroes at Night as well as in the Day.

It is much to be regretted, when the alarming Cry of FIRE is made, that many of the Inhabitants are either so selfish, or indifferent about their Neighbour's Distress, so they themselves be not in immediate Danger, that they will not send out their Buckets, probably for fear they should be lost; by which Means, sometimes the Engines cannot be sufficiently furnished with Water, whilst the Fire is spreading its Devastation for Want of this necessary Supply:—But I have Authority to assure the People, who are of such narrow Principles, that the FIRE-MASTERS will make good whatever Losses are sustained on such Occasions, by replacing the Buckets that may be lost, with others.—It is therefore hoped, that at such calamitous Times, no one will withhold this necessary Assistance for the Relief of those who are in Distress.

Were the necessary Care taken of Buckets, they might be preserved for many Years.—They ought to be carefully dried when used, and oiled now and then, to preserve the Leather—Instead of which they are hung up or thrown about wet, whereby they presently rot and become unserviceable.—Besides, many People allow their Servants to draw Water, feed their Horses, or use their Buckets on many such Occasions as are quite foreign to their original Intention; which was, that they should be ready and fit for Use in Time of Fire.

It is much to be lamented, when our Neighbours are involved in Distress by Fire, that very many White, as well as black People, come there only to gaze, and stand in the Way of others who are willing to lend their Assistance, without offering the least Help to extinguish it, or to save the Furniture or other Goods that are then thrown out of the Houses which are on Fire, or those that are in Danger of being so:—Here the FIRE-MASTERS have the Power to fine a White Person in the Sum of Five Pounds, and to order Negroes to receive Twenty Lashes who refuse their Assistance, when called upon to give it on such alarming Occasions.—Surely neither the small Mulct, nor the trifling Correction which the Law directs to be inflicted, are sufficient Punishments, considering the Loss that may be incurred, for Want of that Aid, which many Hands, were they properly employed, might give at such perilous Times.

Besides, the Power of the FIRE-MASTERS seems too circumscribed in other Respects:—For they should have the Authority to appoint one or more fit Persons, to have the Charge of a certain Number of White Men and Negroes, to remove the Goods which are in Houses on Fire, or others that are in immediate Danger thereof, and to convey them to Places of Safety, where a Guard should be placed to prevent Theft or Embezzlement.—It is indeed true, that the FIRE-MASTERS being few, are too much engaged at the Places where the Fire rages, to attend to any Thing else on such Occasions.—But certainly, any humane Set of Men, might assume this benevolent Office, without being appointed to it by Law, or by those who are impowered to act at such calamitous Times.—The FIRE-MASTERS however should be invested with Authority to appoint a particular Set of Men to this one Purpose of preserving, as far as might be in their Power, the Goods and Effects of those, whose whole Interest may be devoured by Fire, or plundered by Robbers.

ABSTRACT of an ACT

"For establishing, keeping, and maintaining a WATCH COMPANY, for preserving good Orders and Regulations in CHARLES-TOWN:"

"AND Whereas the THROWING of Squibs, Serpents, and other Fire-Works in Charles-Town, may endanger and occasion the FIRING of the said Town: For Prevention whereof, for the future, Be it enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the Ratification of this Act, shall throw, shoot, or set on Fire, any Squib, Serpent, or other such like Fire-Work, within the Bounds of the said Town, under the Penalty of FORTY SHILLINGS, current Money, for every such Offence, to be recovered from the Offender or Offenders, upon Conviction thereof, before any Magistrate of the said Town; and, upon Refusal, or Delay of Payment of the same immediately, then the said Magistrate or Magistrates of the said Town, shall, and they are hereby empowered and required, to order and cause such corporal Punishment to be inflicted upon every such Offender or Offenders, as shall in his or their Discretion, be adjudged suitable to the Offence. And that, on the Evenings or Nights of Holy-Days, or Rejoicing-Days, and at other Times, when it shall be needful, the Captain or Commander of the Watch shall, and he is hereby required and commanded, to order out the whole Watch Company upon Duty, in going the Rounds frequently, or dispersing them in proper Places, in and about the said Town, as Occasion shall require, until Twelve of the Clock at Night, and longer, if necessary, the more effectually to hinder or prevent all People from throwing, shooting, or setting on Fire Squibs, Serpents, or other Fire-Works in the said Town: And the said Watch is hereby empowered and required, to apprehend such Persons as they shall find so offending, and carry them before some Magistrate or Magistrates of the said Town, to be dealt with according to Law."

New Advertisements.

Charles-Town, July 14, 1772.

THE Subscriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years past, have thereby introduced it to Business.—He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindness to him, as it was very industriously insinuated, that Rice would not sell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himself all his Friends are fully so too, that their Crops, landed in large or small Parcels, will sell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and sell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooses to decline that Business, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will still land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he shall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all possible Dispatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is sure there are none preferable to them in Town in those Respects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more secure from Fire; and it is almost impossible for a Barrel of Rice to be stolen in landing or shipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as use his Wharf constantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Prices:—No prudent Planter but must be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmost Consequence to him, as many, for these three Years past, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) disposed of very much against their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is sure has been the Case, particularly this Year several Times, notwithstanding the Shortness of the Crop.

Messrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themselves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will transact their Business on his Wharf.—To these Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend such of his Friends who are not otherwise engaged.

Christopher Gadsden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for such Parcels of Rice as they purchase at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,

ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,

THAT THEY CONTINUE THE

Factorage Business in all its Branches,

(ON THE USUAL TERMS)

AND, for the Convenience of good Storage, will transact it on Captain GADSDEN's WHARF; where they desire such of their Friends, as it may be agreeable to, will order the Goods they intend to favour them with, being convinced, that they will sell as well there, as at any other Place in CHARLES-TOWN.——Constant Attendance will also be given at their other Compting-House on the BAY.

Their Friends will be supplied with proper Boats agreeable to their Orders: And they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favours, by a steady Attention to their Employers Interest, especially as they are determined to confine themselves to the Factorage Business only.—And they assure their Friends, that they are not in any Wise interested in Captain GADSDEN's Stores; so that whenever they shall think it necessary to store for a better Market, it must be SOLELY with a View to their Friends Interest.

N. B. WANTED, to attend on the said Wharf, a Person well qualified and recommended.

ANY Person willing to contract for Lighting the public LAMPS in CHARLES-TOWN, is desired to deliver in PROPOSALS, as soon as possible, to

Also, A general Assortment of Teas, Grocery, Ironmongery, Hard-Ware, Cutlery, japanned Ware, Looking-Glasses, China, and Glass Ware; Saddlery, Pickles, Paints, Oil, Shoes, Hosiery, Carpets, and Carpeting; Hats, Millinery, Drapery, and Haberdashery.

Mr. POWELL,

THROUGH the Channel of your Gazette, I shall attempt to point out an Impoſition that has for ſome Time paſt been practiſed on the Inhabitants of this Province, and which, if ſuffered to continue, will be moſt ſeverely felt by the Community. I mean the Importation of infinitely worſe than the famous Wood's Half-Pence, from ſeveral of the Northern Colonies, and of thoſe made at Birmingham from Europe, and the manufacturing a wretched Imitation of them here; but above all, the bad Policy of permitting them to paſs current amongſt us, is likely to prove the greateſt Evil.

It is high Time to put a Period to ſuch Importations and Impoſitions.—I have been informed of immenſe Quantities of Iriſh Raps, and worſe counterfeit Copper Coins, having been brought from Philadelphia and New York during the laſt ſix Months, where they are collected on Purpoſe to be ſent here: In the mean Time their Agents are employed in this Province in picking up all the Gold and Silver they can meet with, as well as the true Half-Pence that have been imported from London, in order to ſhip them thither.—I have been told, too, that in this Town, one ſingle Man has made as many Coppers, without any Impreſſion, as amounted to 600*l.* Are ſuch villainous Impoſitions to be ſuffered with Impunity? No:

Rather, let us all inſtantly, before the Grievance becomes more enormous, reſolve to take only the Half-Pence coined at the Mint; let us return thoſe that have been imported here from the Northward; let us diſcover the Fabricators here, and if there is any Law to puniſh ſuch Offenders, let them be made Examples of; let us prevent the Exportation of the new Ones—Let the Shop-Keepers, Bakers, Butchers, and Market People begin, and we ſhall ſoon be relieved.

It muſt be confeſſed, that even now ſome People will ſuffer, and the Loſs fall heavy on thoſe that cannot well bear it: But, how much more muſt the Evils of theſe Practices be felt, if we delay to cruſh them for ſix Months longer, and the Importation, &c. ſhould be as great as it has for ſix Months paſt.

Let it be noticed, that a legal Half-Penny purchaſes from four to ſix of the Counterfeits, at the Northward; that many of them are Fifty Times worſe than Wood's; and that the Pieces made here, are of no Value at all.

Nothing leſs than a general Refuſal to give a Currency to ſuch Trash will relieve us: Let us therefore, one and all, enter into a Reſolution not to receive a ſingle Half-Penny that was not coined at the Mint. I am, Yours, &c.

A CITIZEN.

CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 29.

LAST Friday died, much lamented by all her Friends and Acquaintance, Mrs. Mary Peronneau, Widow of the late Mr. Iſaac Peronneau.

On Saturday laſt, Mr. Daniel Crokatt, and Mr. Alexander Gay, returned from Britain, in the Snow Peggy, Capt. Hardie.

The ſame Night an elegant Supper was provided at Mr. Holliday's Tavern, by the Brotherhood of Free and Accepted Maſons, as a Mark of their Reſpect for the Hon. EGERTON LEIGH, Eſq; one of the Members of His Majeſty's Council, Attorney-General, and Provincial Grand Maſter of Maſons in South-Carolina; whereat they ſhewed their ſincere Joy at his ſafe Return to reſide here and preſide over the Craft.

Yeſterday fortnight Mr. Benjamin Legaré returned, from the Weſt Indies, by Way of Bermuda.

Laſt Sunday, in the Britannia, Capt. Ball, returned from England, Mr. William Swallow, Mrs. Swallow, Mr. Chollet, and Mr. Kinniſley, with his Family, and ſeveral other Paſſengers.

The ſame Day died, Mrs. Sabina Taylor, the Wife of Mr. Andrew Taylor.

Monday laſt, being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty being proclaimed King, the Charles-Town Artillery Company was reviewed by His Excellency the Governor; performed their Exerciſe, Evolutions, and Firings, to Admiration; and gave a moſt elegant Dinner at Mr. Holliday's Tavern, to as numerous a Company as ever were entertained there upon any Occaſion, conſiſting of His Excellency the Governor, the Members of His Majeſty's Honourable Council, and of the Aſſembly, the Officers of the Charles-Town Regiment of Foot, all the Public Officers, the Clergy, and principal Inhabitants.

Laſt Tueſday returned from London, in the Ship London, Sampſon Neyle, Eſq; Miſs Wragg, Daughter of the Hon. William Wragg; beſides a Number of other Paſſengers.

The ſame Day, the Hon. PETER MANIGAULT, who, for a Number of Years paſt, has filled the Chair of Speaker of the Honourable Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, with the greateſt Applauſe, reſigned that Seat, on Account of his ill State of Health, and received the moſt cordial Thanks of that Houſe, who have unanimouſly choſen the Honourable RAWLINS LOWNDES (formerly as well approved a Speaker) to ſucceed him, preſented him to the Governor, and had their Choice approved by His Excellency.

The Brigt. Eaſt-Florida Merchant, Capt. Alvara Lofthouſe, arrived at St. Auguſtine, from London, on the 8th Inſtant, with the Hon. Andrew Turnbull, and ſeveral other Paſſengers.

The Ship Polly, George Minthall Maſter of this Port, from Jamaica for London, was ſpoke with laſt Thurſday, by Captain Chambers from Providence, about 30 Leagues Eaſt of Cape Florida, out Nine Weeks, and in Want of Proviſions.

From New Providence, we have an Account of the Death of Capt. Barry Burke, at Cape-Francois.

By Capt. Newbold from Barbados, we are informed, that His Excellency Governor Spry died there on the 31ſt of Auguſt laſt.

OCTOBER SESSIONS, 1772.

IT IS ORDERED,

THAT the PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND JURY be forthwith published in the several Gazettes of this Province. By the Court,

James Johnston, C. C. & P.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS OF THE GRAND JURY for this District of the Province,

At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Assize and General Goal-Delivery, begun and holden at CHARLES-TOWN, on TUESDAY the 20th Day of OCTOBER, 1772.

I. BE present, as a GRIEVANCE, the Number of Wooden Houses now built and building contrary to Law, particularly those on the Wharves of CHARLES-TOWN.

II. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the Proprietors of such Houses whose Chimnies are too small to admit of Sweepers up to them, as an Evil, which if not immediately remedied, might prove of the most destructive Consequence to the Inhabitants of CHARLES-TOWN.

III. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the common Practice of firing Guns on the Eves of Christmas, and on the Mornings of the New-Years; by which Method, it is impossible to distinguish, whether such Firings are intended as Alarms to the Inhabitants, to prepare themselves against an internal or approaching Enemy, or to proclaim the illegal Mirth of a few inconsiderate People.

IV. We present, as a very dangerous GRIEVANCE, the Diversion of firing Squibs, Crackers, and other combustible Matters, in and about the Streets of CHARLES-TOWN, by which Means a House was lately set on Fire, but being in Time discovered, the dismal Consequences were happily prevented.

V. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the public Violation of the Laws, by Draymen and Carters riding on their Carts and Drays.

VI. We likewise present, as a GRIEVANCE, that the same Violation of the Laws are, and have been too frequently committed, by the Servants of Gentlemen, and others, driving the Horses of their Masters, at the most unwarrantable Rates, by which Means the Lives of many are daily endangered; and sorry we are, to present in particular, the Coachman of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, whose general Method of conducting Carriages has been too notorious to pass unnoticed by us, the Grand Jurors of this District.

VII. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the common Custom of feeding Horses and Cows in the Streets.

VIII. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the general Practice of leaving at Nights, large Quantities of Sheet Lead, Grapnals, Stones, and other Articles, on the Pavements of Streets, tending to obstruct that Safety and Ease which was intended for Foot Passengers.

IX. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the Want of Public Drains, Lamps, Wells, and Pumps, in many Streets of this Town.

X. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the great Increase of Dram-Shops, within these few Years.

XI. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the great Inattention of the Watch Company, with Regard to Negroes, and other disorderly Persons, assembling on Sundays, and other Holy-days.

XII. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, from whose Source the many Evils which are committed, derive their Origin; we mean, from the Licences which are annually granted to Watchmen, or their Wives, to keep Dram-Shops, whereby it becomes their Interest to encourage Negroes, and others, to frequent their Houses, and consequently to protect such disorderly Persons in their Male-Practices.

XIII. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, the common Method of committing Persons to Goal, on the most trivial Accusations, and groundless Suspicions, by which Conduct the Liberties of the People are invaded, and the Expences of Government increased, of which Grievance, this present Session has given us most ample Proofs.

XIV. We present, as a GRIEVANCE, of the first Magnitude, that neither the Laws of this Province, or the Statutes of Great-Britain, now in Force, are as yet printed, or published in such a Manner as to be procured, by which Means, not only those, whose Duty and Station it is, to explain and to expound the Laws, must frequently meet with many Inconveniences, and great Difficulties, in the Execution of their Offices, but ultimately this general Defect must fall on the People themselves, particularly those whose Places of Abode are at the greatest Distance from this Metropolis.

XV. We present Thomas Lamboll, Esq; for keeping a Body of stagnated Water within his Lot on White-Point, by which Means numberless Insects are produced, rendering at the same Time the Inhabitants on the adjoining Lots very sickly, but particularly so to Mr. Robert Mackenzie, by keeping his Cellars very wet, at every heavy Rain:—We likewise present the said Thomas Lamboll, for stopping a private Drain, which the said Robert Mackenzie had made, to lead off the said Body of Water into the Public Drain in King-Street; by the Information of the said Robert Mackenzie.

XVI. We present, Mary Grant, living in Meeting-Street, for keeping a riotous and disorderly House; by the Information of John-Ernest Poyas.

XVII. We present, Thomas Farr, sen. Esq; for Fencing in two Lots of Land in CHARLES-TOWN, Numbers 300 and 301, belonging to the Public; on the Information of William Hopton.

XVIII. We present, Charles Elliott, Thomas Ferguson, Josiah Perry, Melcher Gardner, Francis Young, Isaac Macpherson, George Haig, and Robert Rowand, Esquires, for not keeping (as Commissioners of the Parish of St. Paul) the Causeway, known by the Name of Wallace's Causeway, in proper Repair; by the Information of Richard Downes, and Michael Muckenfuss.

LASTLY, We recommend that these our PRESENTMENTS may be published.

Mr. POWELL,

By inserting the following VERSIFICATION of the Letter signed A FRIEND TO TRADE, you will oblige,

Yours, &c. CLIO.

'TIS strange, Mr. Powell, as we well may suppose,
That your Readers cannot see an Inch from their Nose.
With a great Deal of Wit, 'tis requested to know,
What Use from the burning of Powder can flow?
Why so often the North and South Bastions resound,
And the Hearts of old Women with Terror confound?
But tell us, what Business have People below
Their Superiors in Rank, to ask what they do?
Shall the Dirt in the Streets interfere with the State,
And dare on such Matters of Moment debate?
Petty Wretches! not honour'd with Title or Place,
Who what they can't do, will attempt to disgrace.
'Tis dreadful to think what we next may endure,
Unless for these Ills we experience a Cure;
The Ruffian Edicts may find Way to our Laws,
And Crispin's Adage * be a capital Clause.
By this may our Tongues in an Instant be ty'd:
Nay, Thinking suppress'd—or at least be deny'd.
At once we must leave other's Matters alone,
And trouble our Heads about none—save our own:
But to satisfy Minds, who impatiently love
To know how Things go with their Betters above;
Who may probably think this good Practice ally'd
To vain Ostentation, and mere worldly Pride;
To clear too his L——p, we'll attempt now to show,
That from firing of Cannon three Benefits flow:
His L——p's Regard, to the Good of the People,
Is a Reason as large and as strong as the Steeple:
Endow'd with a Mind, philosophic'ly fraught,
The Health of the Species employs his first Thought;
And ambitious to shew both his Love and his Zeal,
By improving of Physic for the Public Weal;
What Quack who knows not, in a Climate like this,
That Thunder is sent to amend what's amiss;
That the Heat of the Weather enervates the Air,
And nothing like Noise can this Grievance repair:
When therefore this Power proves feeble and weak,
His L——p is pleas'd a mock Thunder to make,
To prevent the Defect we might otherwise know,
And fill up the Place of the Gods here below.
How knowst thou, rash Man! but all may contribute
To rouse up thy Genius, and quicken thy Spirit;
To make thy Blood flow with a free Circulation,
And tend to promote every common Secretion:
But thou art a Coward, thy Objections declare,
Or why such Aversion to the Emblems of War;
In this, wise the Scheme of his L——p appears,
By filling thy Breast with such manifold Fears;
Since at CLOACINA's Shrine more oft thou art seen,
Addressing thy Devoirs to that heavenly Queen.
The next great Advantage that we shall produce,
And shew wherein burning of Powder's of Use,
Concerns both the Trader and Trade of the Nation,
And greatly applaudeth his L——p's Invention.
Trade is, surely, the strongest Support that's enjoy'd,
And the greater's the Bustling the more are employ'd;
This Truth is so clear, that no more we will say,
But proceed, and its many good Ules display;
The historical Page, in Characters plain,
Will tell of a Feast in the Third George's Reign,
That for Elegance, Taste, and Plenty galore,
Was never exceeded by any before;
Lambs, Rabbits, and Ducks, Puddings, Pidgeons and Pies,
Flew forth from the Windows, and darken'd the Skies;
China and Glass, and much frail Matter more,
Lay broke and destroy'd at Nobody's Door;
Which occasion'd Defects for our Trade to repair,
And evinced his L——p's great Prudence and Care.
And lastly, enquire we how certainly true,
The Benefits are in a politic View:
A short Day's Experience will fully suffice,
To teach us how Splendor affecteth the Eyes:
Trim a Monkey with Gold, or with Silver all o'er,
And Thousands will court him, and Thousands adore;
Indeed, my good Sir, we too soon learn to hide
Our Weakness and Want, in Noise, Glitter, and Pride:
His L——p's sound Policy taught him to know,
That Noise in a Government's equal to Shew;
It impresses the Mind with a Sense of his Pow'r,
And makes all who hear him his Wisdom adore:
What a truly wise Scheme, when in this Light we view it,
Every Time that he moves, in a mock Thunder to shew it!
How must our Ideas of that Man be rais'd,
And make us to cry out, His L——p be prais'd,
Whose every Motion loud Cannons proclaim,
And unite in extolling his Wisdom and Fame?
Ye crown'd Heads of England, pray where is your Sense?
Come here and learn Lessons of State Consequence;
We will teach you a Mystery, Thrice in a Day,
Such as England scarce Twice in the Year does display.
How would Wit, and polite Conversation decreale,
And every fine Talent be hush'd into Peace,
If the Cannon's loud Roar did not often declare,
That his L——p was going to take the fresh Air!
Were it not for these Heralds, our Gun-Powder Trade
Would soon fall to Decay, and be trifling made;
What are Thousands per Annum (this Practice expends)
To our being inform'd when to move he intends,
Compar'd to the very great Privilege that flows,
Of saying, "Here comes his L——p, or there again goes?"
O for the Aid of magical Skill to descry,
Or for CIRCE's fam'd Power to help the weak Eye,
That the honest, sagacious, and wise Engineers,
May be sav'd all their Trouble, their Labour, and Fears;
For sure 'twas a monst'rous Mistake and Disaster,
To take at a Distance—the Man for the Master.
'Twere much to be wish'd, some Projector profound,
McAlpine, for Instance, a Scheme wou'd propound,
For making of Cannon go off by Intuition,
And prevent for the future, such blund'ring Confusion.
This Thought would appear, to the wisest of People,
Better than that of flying down from a Steeple:
Of walking on Water, or sailing below it,
His great Genius declare, and much plainer shew it.
All ye Neighbours around, pray no longer complain,
Of Hearts aching with Fear, and Heads cracking with Pain:
Ye sickly weak Mortals, complain ye no more,
But account it an Honour to hear Cannons roar,
While ye stand on the Brink of Eternity's Shore:
Ye Landlords and others no longer lament,
But cease to abuse so worthy an Intent;
And let it no longer your Anger provoke,
That your Wines are all spoilt, and your Windows all broke.
Burst forth ye loud Cultivrins, utter your Cries,
And ten Times a Day salute the bright Skies;
When compar'd with your Tone, the Music of the Spheres,
Dissonant and harsh, and without Tune appears;
And may every Being in Charles-Town rejoice,
Cry, Long live his L——p when he heareth the Noise.

* My Lyre is Cupidon.

[NUMB. 1921.] THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1772.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

On the Frailty and Fatality of PASSIONS, and Mutability of AFFECTIONS.

NOTHING can be more apparent, than that the ALMIGHTY planted paſſions and affections in our Hearts, to ſtimulate us to action, and cement us by ſocial bonds; and that he gave us reaſon, to be the regulation of our perſuits and connections.

Without paſſions and affections to animate us to neceſſary exertions, to chear us with fond hopes, and to charm us with wiſh'd acquirements, life would be no better than a ſtate of ſtagnant inſenſibility, a vapid exiſtence void of comfort and of joy. Yet the paſſions and affections, without the guidance of reaſon, would make life like a tempeſt, full of danger and diſquietude.

The wiſe author of our beings, has ordained our paſſions and affections to be the inſtruments of our happineſs, and the foundations of all worth in us. But as inordinance in all things, becomes the reverſe of their natural effects; ſo paſſions and affections, when looſe from the reſtraints of reaſon, become either their own annihilators, or the producers of much miſery and diſappointment.

Of all the paſſions in the human heart, love is the moſt amiable, moſt neceſſary, moſt powerful, and moſt delightful. It is what may be called the maſter-ſpring of nature, and only ſource of all exiſtence.

Yet forcible as this paſſion ſhould be, there is a neceſſity for its being regulated; otherwiſe it proves ſelf-deſtructive, or is the producer of great diſquietude.

Where mere animal enjoyment is the only inſtigator of deſire, fruition generally begets indifference, and repletion fatiety.—Sometimes, indeed, the flame lights on matter of ſo combuſtible a quality, as to be for ever encreaſing, 'till even nature is conſumed. Inſtances of the firſt kind may be obſerved in many fond lovers, who ſoon become loathing huſbands, or ſpeedily deſpiſing wives: the conſequence of which is infidelity, the cauſe of all unhappineſs, and often the ſource of entire ruin. Nor is it unfrequently leſs fatal in its encreaſing progreſſion, by producing jealouſy, anxiety, and being the engroſſer of all care. Who loves like a Herod, will be a tormentor, and tormented: who dotes like a Mark Anthony, will be a doter to his ruin.

Love ſhould be the inſpirer, not the engroſſer of the mind. It ſhould be the reliever of our cares, not the ſole object of our concern. The beſt way not to deſpiſe a woman is never to believe her an angel: and the only way not to become dotards is, to remember that we are men; and that the dignity of our natures requires the regulation of our appetites.

A lover enduring ſlavery, is like a miſer enduring want: they make the inſtruments of happineſs the annihilators of enjoyment.

As love is undeniably the ſtrongeſt paſſion of the heart; ſo the paternal affection is, of all others, the moſt natural, the moſt commendable, and moſt forcible of the human mind. Yet, where diſcretion is not the regulator of that tender affection it operates with a tendancy to defeat its own ends.

The views of all parents ſhould be the happineſs of their children; in whoſe felicity they are propoſers of great comfort to themſelves. Their felicity muſt depend on health, virtue, and proſperity; the great inſtruments of happineſs to the whole of the human race.

If nature has done her part, in their faculties and formations, all that remains with parents to perform, with the attaining of thoſe ends, muſt proceed from the exerciſe of true wiſdom, and a regularity of conduct.

Yet how ſeldom does this affection operate without a bias that proves hurtful, either from too great a rigour, or relaxation of diſcipline. A ſaturnine-complexioned parent is the excuſer of no follies, nor the pardoner of any faults; ſo that unremitting ſeverity againſt error becomes the provoker of deſperation, or a depreſſor of the ſpirit, and a deadener of all faculties; and thereby the child is either driven into extravagance, or ſunk into ſuch exceſſive goodneſs as to be never good for any thing: when the parent, who made the fool, becomes the hater, or deſpiſer of it.

The other error of conduct ariſes from over indulgence, which often ſows the ſeed of an ill conſtitution in the very management of the nurſery. In the firſt ſtages of rationality, a compliance, with perverſe humours, is ſure to lay the foundation of a turbulence of ſpirit. Then a blindneſs to follies, a palliation of faults, an humouring of habitual diſattentions, and a ready contribution often made towards intoxicating delights, give ignorance and error an aſcendency that prove laſting, and involve the object of a fond regard in ſuch crimes, as turn love into hatred, or bring ſhame and ruin upon all. Such are the frailties of the firſt of natural affections; when indulged to exceſs, miſtaken in operations, or diveſted of the guidance of reſolute and calm reaſon.

But what can we ſay in excuſe for the frailties of our nature, that often ſhews the inſtability of this ſtrongeſt, deepeſt-rooted, and moſt natural affection, when counteracted, as it frequently is, by a powerful paſſion? or rather, give it a right name, a very influential vice? I ſhall exemplify this by a ſhort hiſtory, in which there will appear nothing very uncommon of a ſelected perſon from either ſex.

Adrion was a man endowed by nature with a good perſon and underſtanding. He was bred to buſy life, having no conſiderable fortune of his own: and his early ſobriety and application appeared to promiſe him ſucceſs. His natural endowments and habitual good qualities were happily the recommenders of him to women of great merit, and ſuperior riches, in a conſiderable degree, to his own.

Thus advantageouſly married, he ſoon became in affluent circumſtances: and no man ſeemed happier as a huſband and a parent.

A courſe of years ſpent in ſtrong application to buſineſs, at length enabled him to quit it with a very plentiful fortune; and he retired into the country one of the happieſt of mankind. There however he, in a ſhort time, encountered his firſt great misfortune, in the loſs of his wife, whom he moſt tenderly loved.

His happineſs then centred in three children, who ſurvived her, and to them he became indulgent to a degree that might be deemed exceſſive.

A ſon of ten years of age was at a boarding-ſchool for education: and two daughters, that were older, he kept under proper care at home.

During three years, the diſconſolate widower ſeemed to be ſunk in the fond father. In the fourth, an attempted intrigue with his cook-maid proved the means of making her his wife: when a ſudden change of all things ſoon took place in his family. In the now-doating huſband the doating parent became loſt. He grew indifferent towards his children, and by degrees careleſs of their happineſs.

Uxurious to an exceſs, he ſubmitted himſelf to abſolute government: and even ſaw his children, unmercifully tyrannized over by ignorance, made inſolent with intoxicating power.

So mortifying a reverſe of ſituation, made his daughters extremely miſerable: and ſuch their brother found them, on his coming home, at a breaking up of ſchool. Being fourteen years of age, and a youth of great ſpirit, he was not able to bear with patience the complaints that his ſiſters made to him. The conſequence of which was, after conſultation with the ſtep-mother, that he muſt prepare to leave the houſe, and think of returning to it no more. He had his choice given him of a ſtation in the navy, or in India, without any other alternative than that of providing for himſelf. His choice was the navy; to which he ſpeedily was ſent: where neglect and narrow circumſtances very ſoon broke his heart.

In the mean time, his ſiſters found their miſeries daily to increaſe. The ſtep-mother had a child, which ſtill more eſtabliſhed her power: for the offſpring of age, as uſual engroſſed all paternal affection. In ſhort, wearied out with mortifications, and provoked by ceaſeleſs injuries, the elder daughter ſought for refuge in an indiſcreet marriage, of which ſhe ſoon died the victim: the younger pined herſelf into madneſs, which continued to her death. Thus, by the fatal interpoſition of unreſtrained appetite, terminated the faireſt of hopes, and the foundeſt of all affections.

Sophronia was the indulged and happy wife of a gentleman of great worth and fortune; and the mother of many children, whom ſhe loved with great tenderneſs. Prudence was her diſtinguiſhed virtue: and it rendered her amiable in all things. Above all the levities of the giddy part of her ſex, ſhe ſought for enjoyment in the exerciſes of virtue, and the acquirement of wiſdom. Her huſband doated on her charms, and even gloried in her perfections. And in caſe of his death, from a ſolicitude for the happineſs of his children, he appointed her, by his will, ſole guardian and executrix; leaving a great part of his fortune to her diſpoſal, in order thereby to ſecure his children's obedience to her, for their own happineſs and welfare.

Towards the decline of his life, he ſickened and died ſuddenly, leaving his widow mourner in ſincerity of heart.

In this ſtate ſhe, for ſome time, deported herſelf with all reſpect to his memory, and the fondeſt regard for her children.

But who is there that can anſwer for human reſolution? The fortune bequeathed for inſuring her happineſs, proved her inſnarer into error. Her wealth and power over her children, were her expoſers to temptation: and they engaged a diſſembling deſigner to aim at becoming maſter of her heart. By progreſſive ſteps, to her long imperceptible, he ſucceeded in his ſcheme; and at length became her huſband, from an almoſt phrenzy of deſire.

Thus, by being maſter of her affections, he ſoon became maſter of all in her power: and her children growing leſs dear to her, they became ſacrificed to his intereſt in all things: in ſhort, every thing ſhe could ſhe robbed them of for his gratification; and this not in return for his love, but to raiſe him to it from indifference: ſuch a power has artifice over a heart in captivity.

In fine, without ever being the miſtreſs of his affections, ſhe became the ſlave of his intereſts; proving unfaithful to her truſt and unnatural to her offspring: was never miſtreſs of her inclinations, nor in poſſeſſion of true happineſs: living by all unreſpected, and dying by all unlamented.

Such are the frailties of human paſſions, the inſtability of human affections, the inſufficiency of wiſdom, and the uncertainty of virtue! A leſſon of importance to all of the human race.

To be SOLD at public Sale,

On WEDNESDAY Morning the 11*th of* November,
About Eleven o'Clock, on the SPOT,

Three LOTS of LAND,

Situated almoſt cloſe to the SUBSCRIBER's Houſe in CHARLES-TOWN.

EACH Lot Two Hundred Feet deep, from Eaſt to Weſt, and Sixty Feet Front on two commodious Streets. One (a Corner Lot) has three Fronts.—For Height, Conveniency, Pleaſantneſs, and Healthineſs of Situation, they are inferior to none in Town, and the Water thereon as good as any to be met with in moſt Parts of the Country. From their being ſo near to my WHARF, and much nearer to a bold, ſafe, and navigable CREEK, full Fifty Feet wide in the narroweſt Place, where any the largeſt of the Coaſting Scooners may come up loaded, the Purchaſers may have their Materials, for Building, &c. landed almoſt at their Doors. No Situation in CHARLES-TOWN is preferable to that of one of the Lots on the Hill, directly fronting the Street leading to my Wharf, where a good Houſe can never be hid, and will always appear to the greateſt Advantage.

As the Lots are ſtaked out, ſo that any Gentleman may view them, and their Situation is well known, nothing farther need be added here, ſave, that the Purchaſers may have One or Two Years Credit, paying Intereſt, and giving Security if required; or if it ſuits any to pay this Crop, good Rice will be taken at the current Market-Price, any Time before the Firſt of February next.
